

Summary of Key Provisions of the Model Guidelines on Foster Care, 2024 in Comparison with the 2016 Guidelines

On 26th April, 2024, the Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of India issued the Model Guidelines for Foster Care, 2024, revised in light of the 2021 amendment to the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, and the 2022 amendment of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Model Rules. The 2024 Foster Care Guidelines has introduced several new provisions in alignment with the amended JJ Act, JJ Model Rules, and Adoption Regulations, 2022, and have simplified many other provisions which were existing in the 2016 Foster Care Guidelines.

This document concentrates on key provisions of the 2024 Foster Care Guidelines and compares it with the 2016 version. For ease of reference, paragraph number of the respective Guidelines where particular provisions can be found has been highlighted, since only a shortened version is included in this document.

Please note that the following table does NOT contain all provisions of the Guidelines that may have been revised. You are requested to refer to the complete Guidelines document for a detailed understanding.

17	Termination	Grounds for termination of foster care are largely similar in the 2016 and 2024 Guidelines, except that a clause has been added which allows foster care to be terminated on any other ground which is considered inappropriate for the welfare of the child.	A. Gives CWC the right to terminate foster care placement after considering recommendations of the SFCAC and report of the DCPU; B. Requires CWC to give notice in writing and to consider views of the foster families / care givers of the fit facility before termination; C. Requires CWC to record the date and reasons for termination in the order issued along with an order to place the child in another suitable foster family or CCI or another fit facility for group foster care; D. Lists the reasons in which foster care placement may be terminated:                      - Child attains the age of 18;                      - When the biological parent is released (e.g. from imprisonment or treatment) and requests the Committee for the custody of the child;                      - If child who is legally free for adoption finds a suitable adoptive family;                      - On complaint by either the child, relatives, or member(s) of the community followed by inquiry by DCPU; [Para 3.5]	Specifies similar process to be followed for termination, and reasons. Includes "Any other ground that may be considered inappropriate for the welfare of the child observed by the DCPU or the CWC concerned." in reasons for termination. [Para 17.4.d.ix]
